

anti-racism

Speaking up or doing something against racism to make things right.

ethnicity

Your family's story, where they came from, the languages they speak, and the traditions they keep.

racism

Racism is when someone is treated unfairly because of their race.

race

A way of grouping
people by their skin
colour.

human dignity

You were born
with a full bucket
of it, because God made you in
His own image